

UCCD1213 Fundamentals of Digital Media Technology

Interesting Facts About our Planets

Presented By: Group 3

Mercury: The Planet of Fire and Ice

The smallest planet

Greatest Temperature
Variation

Show Reason

It is a rocky, metallic planet with no atmosphere

Day: 430°C Night: -180°C

Venus: The Hottest Rebel

The hottest planet
The planet where the sun rises in the West

See Reason

See Reason

Its thick CO₂ atmosphere traps heat
It spins clockwise, which is the opposite of Earth

Earth: The Blue Planet

The Wobbly Life-Giver

- The Earth is not a perfect sphere
- It looks more like a frisbee

What does it look like?

look like?

Mars: The Rusty Desert

Home to
Valles Marineris

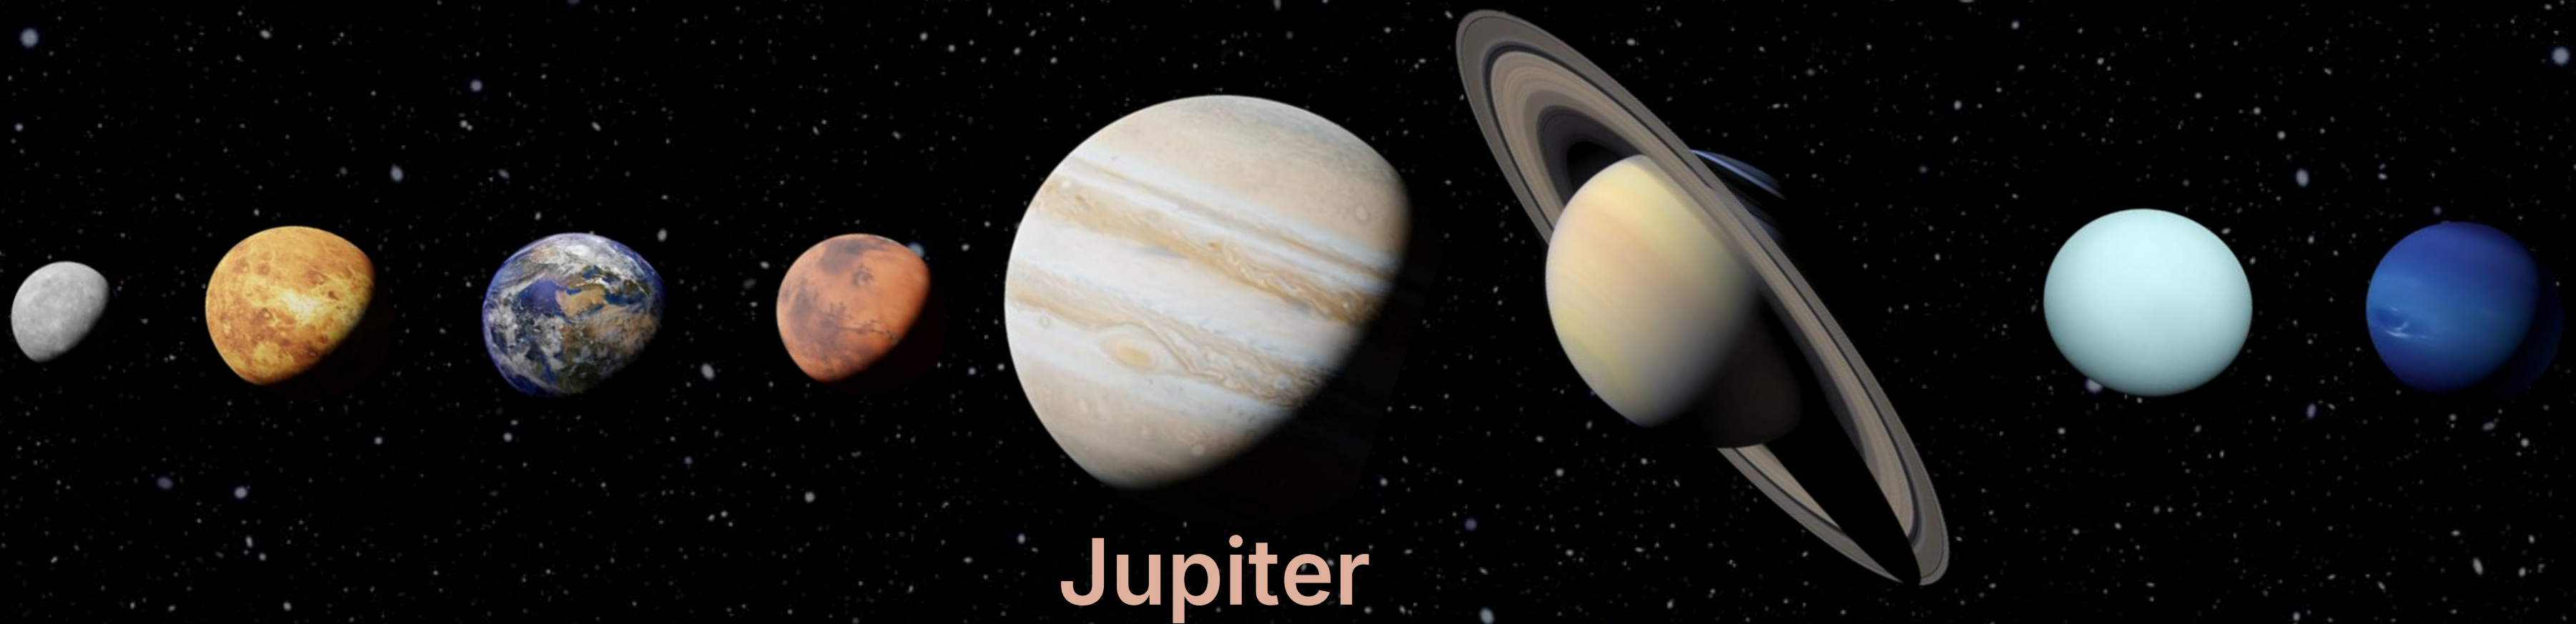

Bring me there!

- The Largest recorded canyon

Jupiter: The Largest Planet

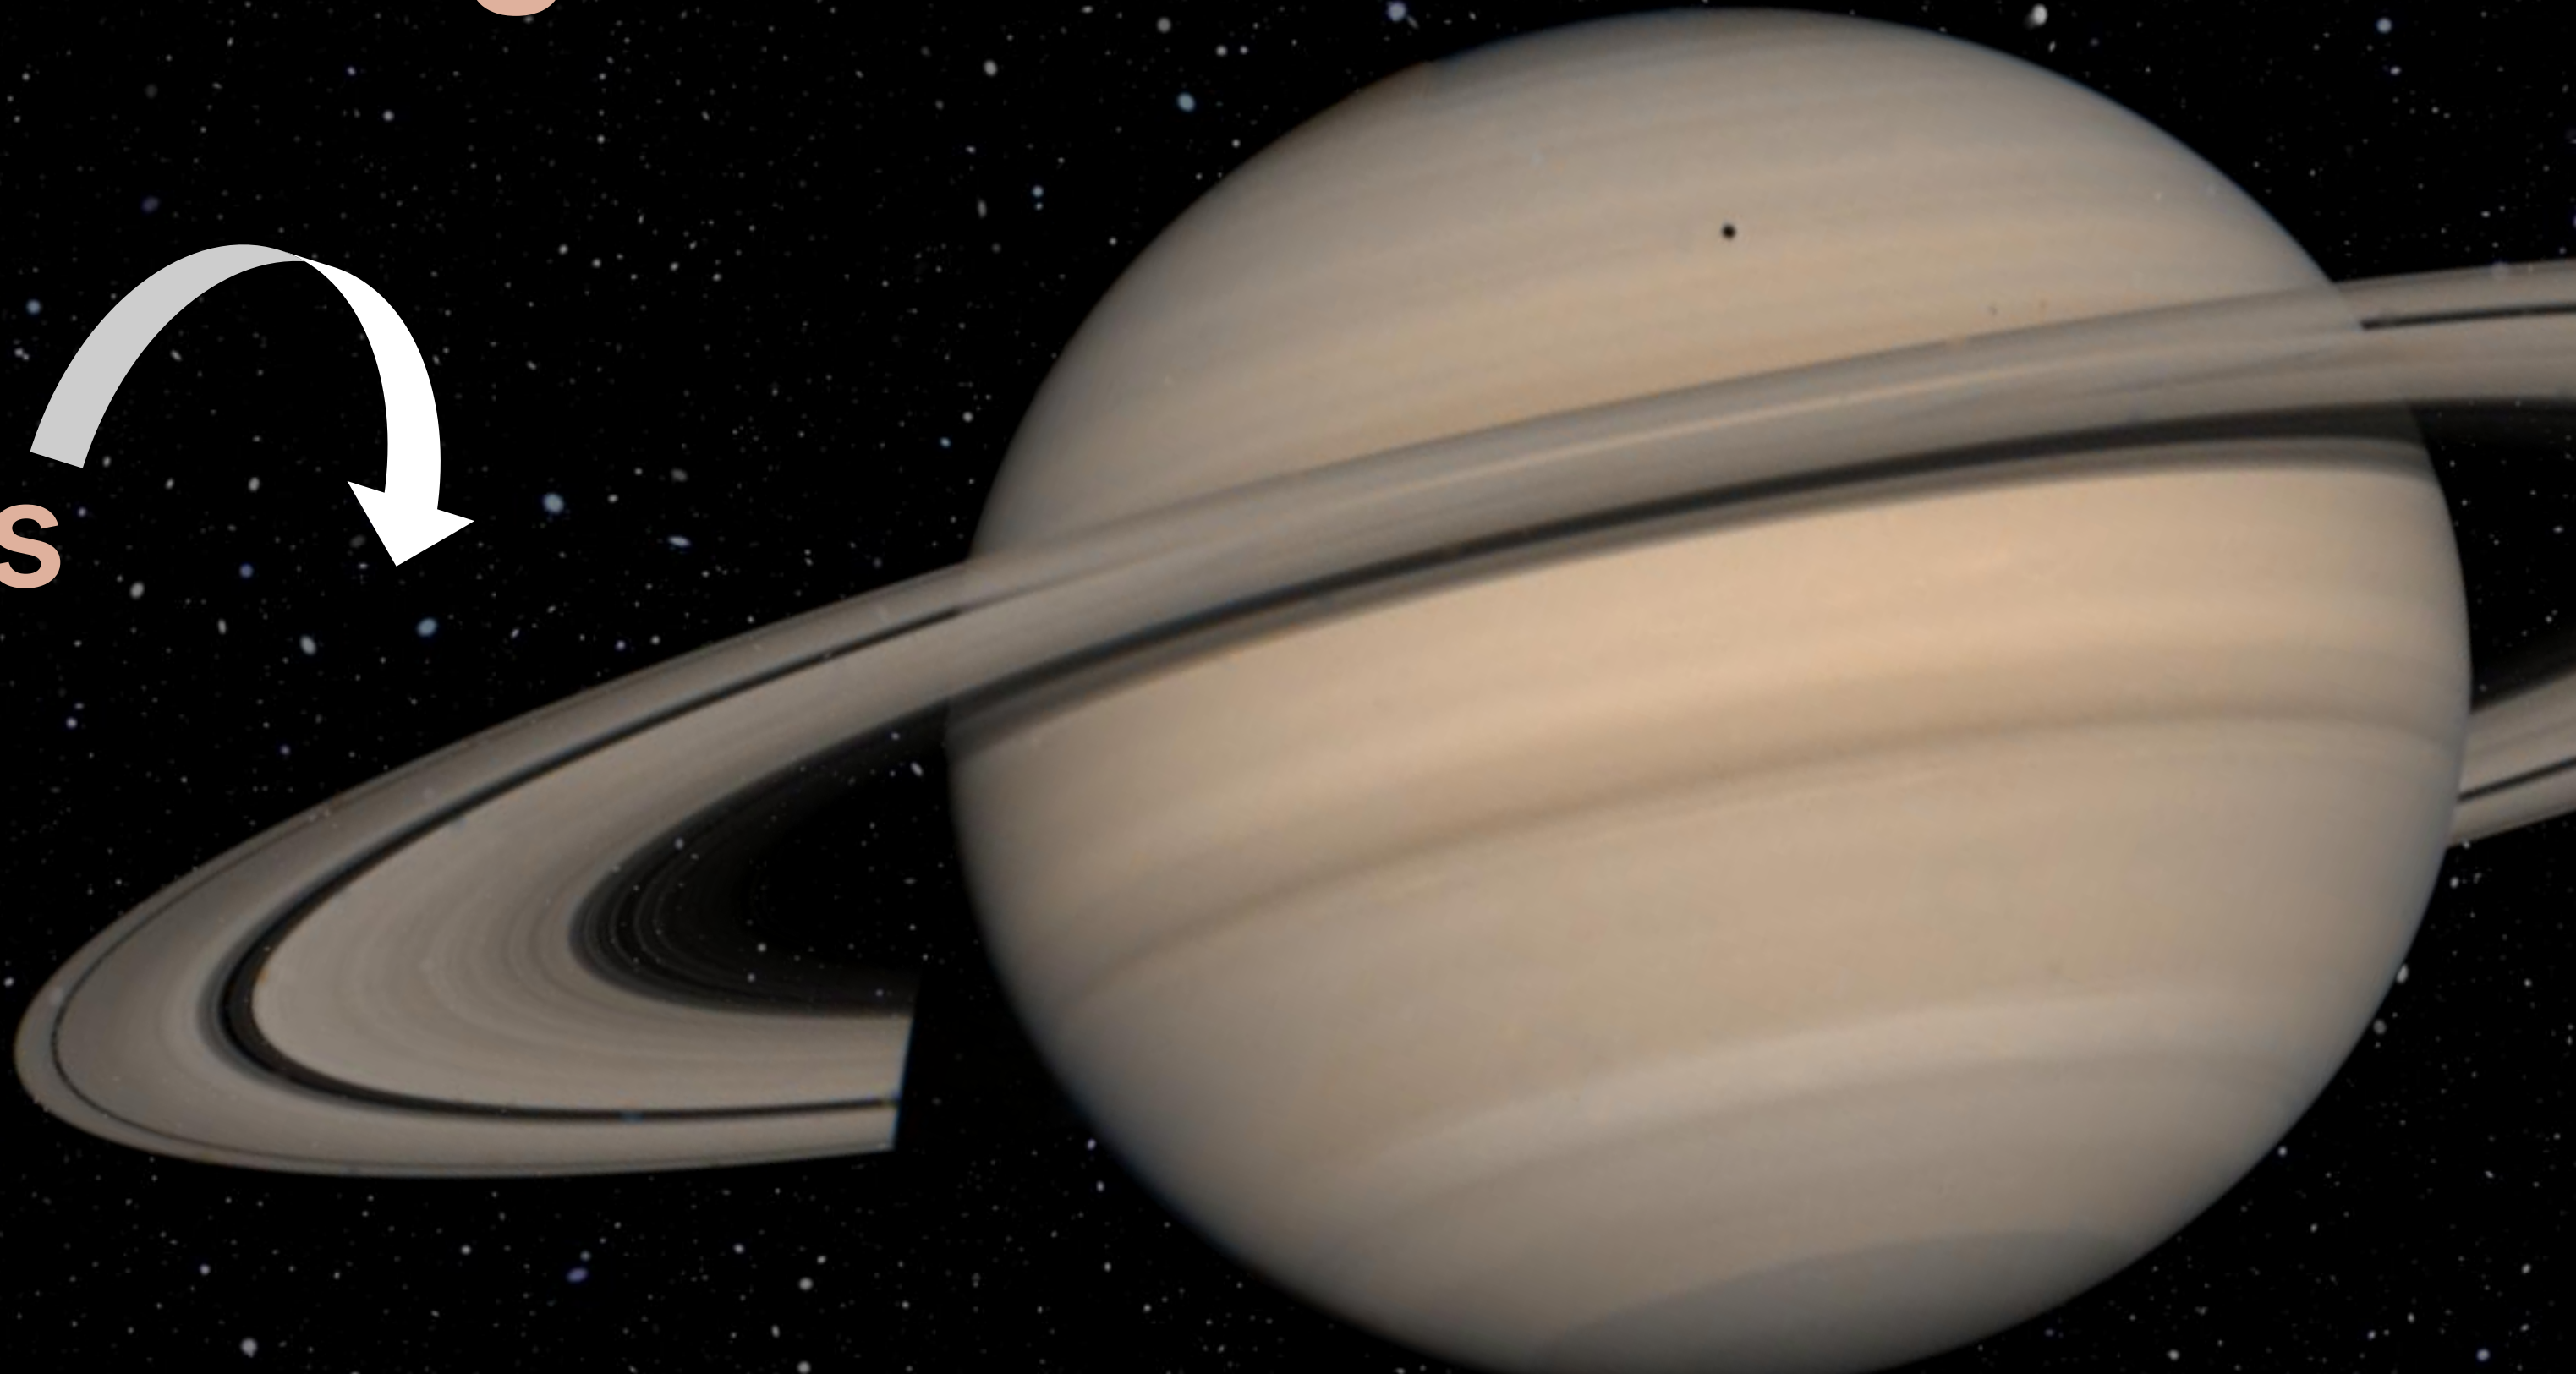

11 Earths Wide

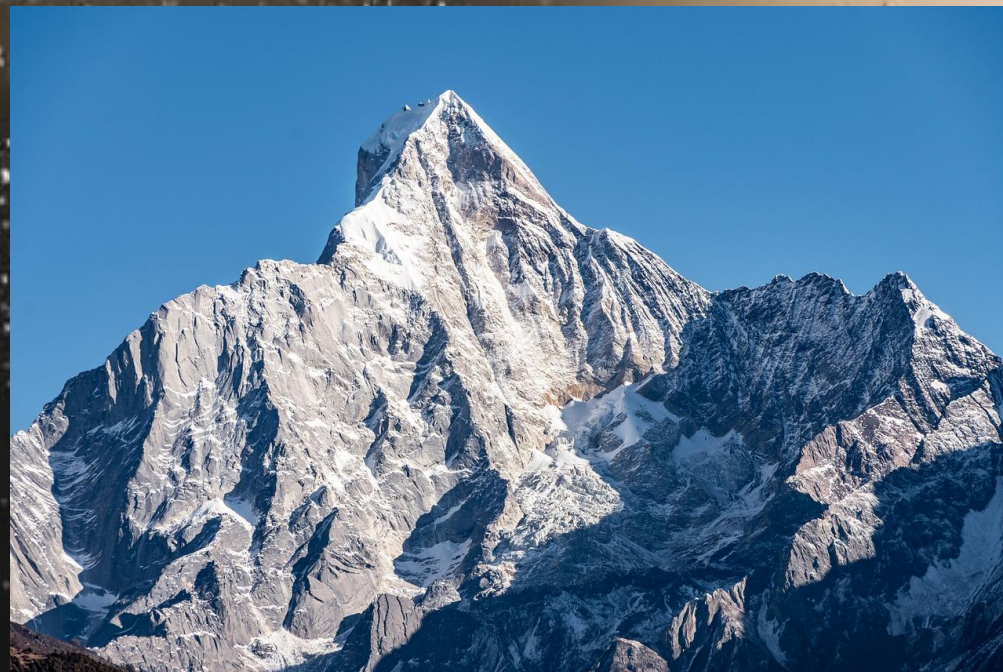

Saturn: The 2nd Largest Planet

Rings

Made from remnants of

- ✓ Comets
- ✓ Asteroids
- ✓ Moons

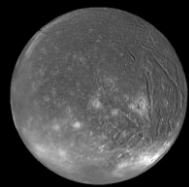

Range in size

✓ Small as dust

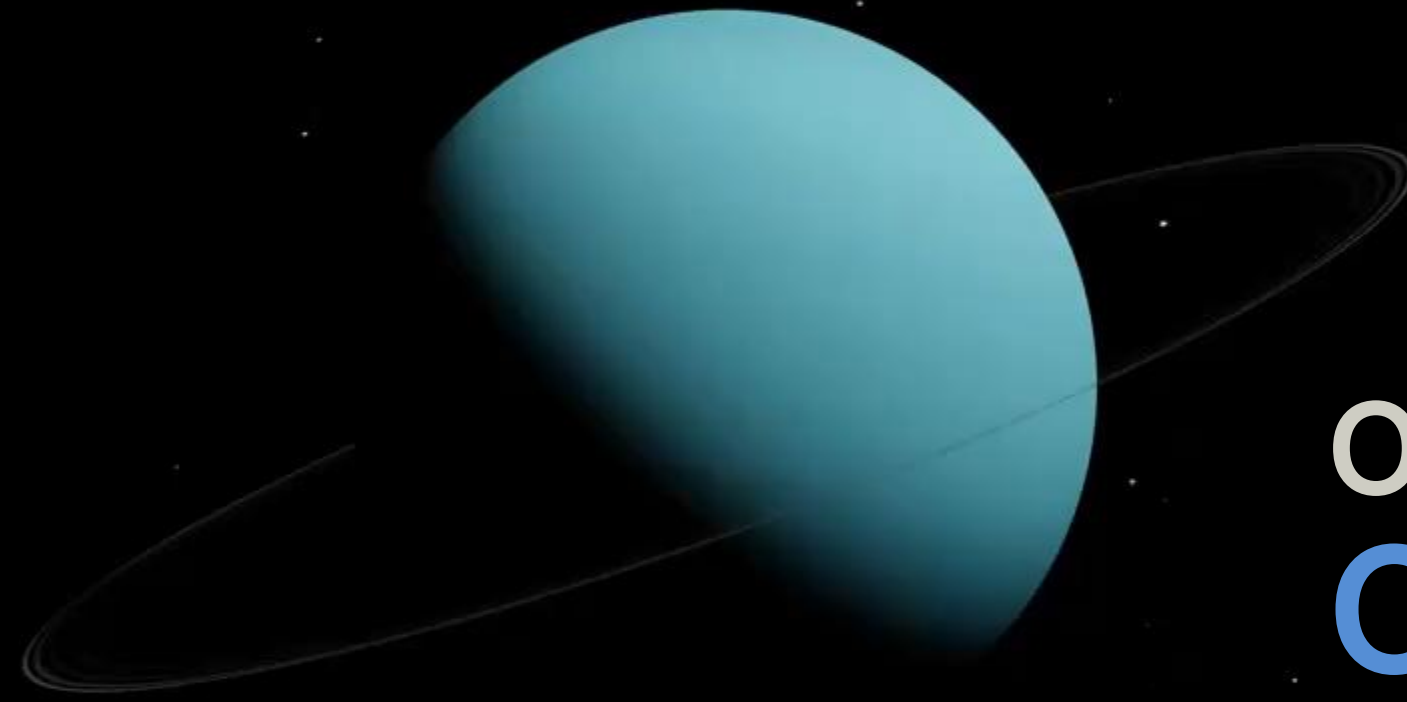

✓ Big as mountains

Click Me

Uranus: The Gaseous Ice Giant

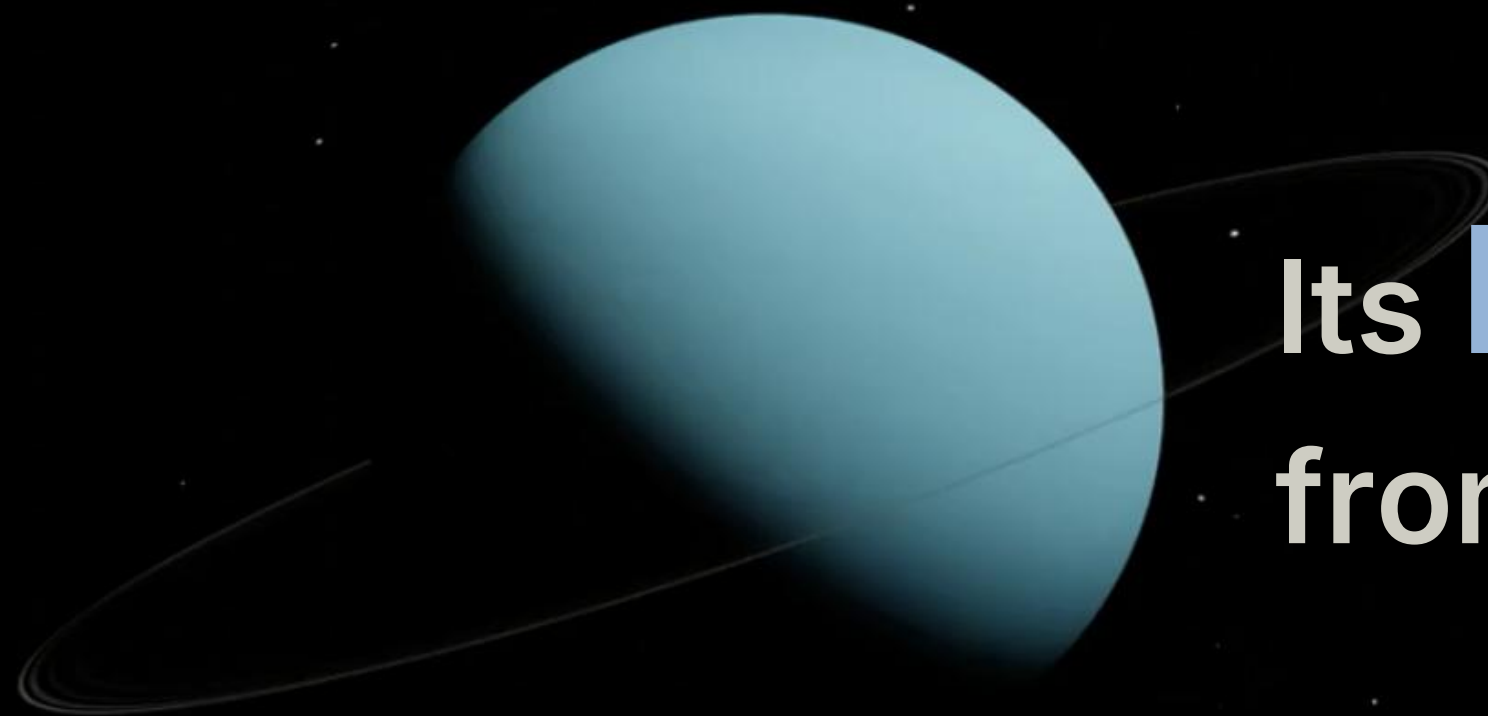

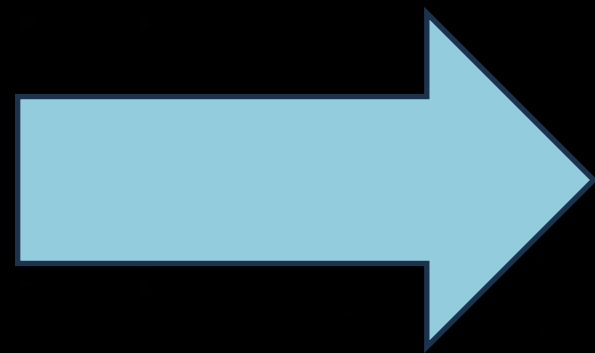

Possess 27 known
Moons

One of the Coldest planets

Show Interesting Facts

Its Blue colour is from Methane

Neptune: The Windy Ice Giant

rain

Has the Strongest winds

A composite image of Earth from space, showing the Americas on the left and Europe/Africa on the right, with the text "Thanks For Watching" centered in white. The background is a deep black space filled with numerous small, distant stars.

Thanks For Watching